

APPLYING FOR HUD HOUSING ASSISTANCE?

THINK ABOUT THIS...
IS FRAUD WORTH IT?

Do You Realize...

If you commit fraud to obtain assisted housing from HUD, you could be:

- Evicted from your apartment or house.
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received.
- Fined up to $10,000.
- Imprisoned for up to five years.
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance.
- Subject to State and local government penalties.

Do You Know...

You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that you provided false or misleading information.

The information you provide on housing assistance application and recertification forms will be checked. The local housing agency, HUD, or the Office of Inspector General will check the income and asset information you provide with other Federal, State, or local governments and with private agencies. Certifying false information is fraud.

So Be Careful!

When you fill out your application and yearly recertification for assisted housing from HUD make sure your answers to the questions are accurate and honest. You must include:

All sources of income and changes in income you or any members of your household receive, such as wages, welfare payments, social security and veterans' benefits, pensions, retirement, etc.

Any money you receive on behalf of your children, such as child support, AFDC payments, social security for children, etc.

Any increase in income, such as wages from a new job or an expected pay raise or bonus.

All assets, such as bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc., that are owned by you or any member of your household.

All income from assets, such as interest from savings and checking accounts, stock dividends, etc.

Any business or asset (your home) that you sold in the last two years at less than full value.

The names of everyone, adults or children, relatives and non-relatives, who are living with you and make up your household.

(Important Notice for Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Rita Evacuees: HUD's reporting requirements may be temporarily waived or suspended because of your circumstances. Contact the local housing agency before you complete the housing assistance application.)

Ask Questions

If you don't understand something on the application or recertification forms, always ask questions. It's better to be safe than sorry.

Watch Out for Housing Assistance Scams!

- Don't pay money to have someone fill out housing assistance application and recertification forms for you.
- Don't pay money to move up on a waiting list.
- Don't pay for anything that is not covered by your lease.
- Get a receipt for any money you pay.
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (maintenance or utility charges).

Report Fraud

If you know of anyone who provided false information on a HUD housing assistance application or recertification or if anyone tells you to provide false information, report that person to the HUD Office of Inspector General Hotline. You can call the Hotline toll-free Monday through Friday, from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Eastern Time, at 1-800-347-3735. You can fax information to (202) 708-4829 or e-mail it to Hotline@hudoig.gov. Any person not included on the personal declaration form that has been in the unit more than 30 consecutive days or nights, or a total of 90 cumulative days or nights in any 12-month period will be considered to be living in the unit as an unauthorized household member. Any person who uses the assisted unit's address as his/her address or spends 30% or more of his/her time in a 24 hour period on an ongoing consistent basis is considered to be an unauthorized resident of the household. 9. Engage in abuse of alcohol in a way that threatens the health, safety or right to peaceful enjoyment of the other residents and persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises.

I understand that:

- My rent will be retroactively calculated, if deemed appropriate by HACD for any failure to report required changes within 10 days.

INTERIM REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

An interim change is defined as a change of income or family composition which occurs between annual re-examinations of income and family composition. This includes a minor turning 18 years of age. Families are required to report changes of family composition and increases in income in writing within 10 business days of the change.

CHANGES IN FAMILY AND HOUSEHOLD COMPOSITION

HACD will conduct interim re-examinations to account for any changes in household composition that occur between annual re-examinations. The addition of a family member as a result of birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody does not require prior approval. However, the family is required to notify the HACD in writing within 10 business days of the addition to the household.

Families must request HACD approval to add a new family member (other than those listed above), live-in aide, foster child, or foster adults. This includes any person not on the lease who is expected to stay in the unit for more than 30 consecutive days, or 90 cumulative days, within a twelve month period, and therefore no longer qualifies as a "guest." Request must be made in writing and approved by the HACD prior to the individual moving into the unit. HACD will not approve the addition of a new family or household member unless the individual meets the HACD eligibility criteria.

If a family member or household member (live-in aide, foster child, or foster adult) no longer resides in the unit, the family must report this change in writing to the HACD within 10 business days.

CHANGES IN INCOME OR EXPENSES

Families are required to report increases in household income within 10 business days of the date the change takes effect.

The types of income include, but are not limited to, new employment, increase in Social Security or Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF cash grant), child support, unemployment Insurance benefits, workman's compensation, pension, self-employment income, increase in work hours, overtime or bonuses received on a regular basis, income from babysitting, increase in regular cash contributions to the household, or any other type of income.

HACD will conduct interim re-examinations using the following guidelines for timing of the effective date of the change in the portion of rent the family is responsible for:

EFFECTIVE DATES

If the family share of the rent is to increase:

The increase generally will be effective on the first of the month following 30 days' notice to the family.

If a family fails to report a change within the required time frame, or fails to provide all required information within the required time frame, the increase will be applied retroactively, to the date it would have been effective and the information been provided on a timely basis. The family will be responsible for any overpaid subsidy and may be subject to termination from the Housing Choice Voucher Program, or will be offered a repayment agreement in lieu of termination from the program. Once a repayment agreement is executed, participants are not eligible to move until the debt is paid in full. Families will not be offered a repayment agreement in lieu of termination if they are currently making payments on a repayment agreement already in effect at the time a new instance of unreported income is documented. Families are additionally limited to a total of two repayment agreements during the duration of their participation in the HCV Program.

When the amount of overpaid subsidy meets or exceeds the threshold for prosecution under local or state law ($3,000), HACD will refer the matter to the appropriate entity for prosecution.

If the family share of rent is to decrease:

The decrease will be effective on the first day of the month following the month in which the change was reported, provided the change was reported in writing by the family by the 20th day of the month, and all required documentation was submitted. In cases where the change cannot be verified until after the date the change would have become effective, the change will be made retroactively.

EXAMPLE: A decrease of income is reported in writing by the family and is verified by the HACD prior to December 20. The family's share of rent will be adjusted with a January 1 effective date.

Changes reported in writing after the 20th of the month will not be effective until the first day of the second month after the change is reported.

EXAMPLE: A decrease of income is reported in writing by the family on December 25 and verified by the HACD. The family's share of rent will be adjusted with a February 1 effective date.

If the family share of the rent is to increase:

The increase generally will be effective on the first of the month following 30 days' notice to the family.

If a family fails to report a change within the required time frame, or fails to provide all required information within the required time frame, the increase will be applied retroactively, to the date it would have been effective and the information been provided on a timely basis. The family will be responsible for any overpaid subsidy and may be subject to termination from the Housing Choice Voucher Program, or will be offered a repayment agreement in lieu of termination from the program. Once a repayment agreement is executed, participants are not eligible to move until the debt is paid in full. Families will not be offered a repayment agreement in lieu of termination if they are currently making payments on a repayment agreement already in effect at the time a new instance of unreported income is documented. Families are additionally limited to a total of two repayment agreements during the duration of their participation in the HCV Program.

When the amount of overpaid subsidy meets or exceeds the threshold for prosecution under local or state law ($3,000), HACD will refer the matter to the appropriate entity for prosecution.

If the family share of rent is to decrease:

The decrease will be effective on the first day of the month following the month in which the change was reported, provided the change was reported in writing by the family by the 20th day of the month, and all required documentation was submitted. In cases where the change cannot be verified until after the date the change would have become effective, the change will be made retroactively.

EXAMPLE: A decrease of income is reported in writing by the family and is verified by the HACD prior to December 20. The family's share of rent will be adjusted with a January 1 effective date.

Changes reported in writing after the 20th of the month will not be effective until the first day of the second month after the change is reported.

EXAMPLE: A decrease of income is reported in writing by the family on December 25 and verified by the HACD. The family's share of rent will be adjusted with a February 1 effective date.

Who will have access to the information collected?

This information will be available to HUD employees, PHA employees, and contractors of HUD and PHAs.

How will this information be used?

PHAs will have access to this information during the time of application for rental assistance and reexamination of family income and composition for existing participants. PHAs will be able to access this information to determine a family's suitability for initial or continued rental assistance, and avoid providing limited Federal housing assistance to families who have previously been unable to comply with HUD program requirements. If the reported information is accurate, a PHA may terminate your current rental assistance and deny your future request for HUD rental assistance, subject to PHA policy.

How long is the debt owed and termination information maintained in EIV?

Debt owed and termination information will be maintained in EIV for a period of up to ten (10) years from the end of participation date or such other period consistent with State Law.

What are my rights?

In accordance with the Federal Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (5 USC 552a) and HUD regulations pertaining to its implementation of the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (24 CFR Part 16), you have the following rights:

1. To have access to your records maintained by HUD, subject to 24 CFR Part 16.
2. To have an administrative review of HUD's initial denial of your request to have access to your records maintained by HUD.
3. To have incorrect information in your record corrected upon written request.
4. To file an appeal request of an initial adverse determination on correction or amendment of record request within 30 calendar days after the issuance of the written denial.
5. To have your record disclosed to a third party upon receipt of your written and signed request.

What do I do if I dispute the debt or termination information reported about me?

If you disagree with the reported information, you should contact in writing the PHA who has reported this information about you. The PHA's name, address, and telephone numbers are listed on the Debts Owed and Termination Report. You have a right to request and obtain a copy of this report from the PHA. Inform the PHA why you dispute the information and provide any documentation that supports your dispute. HUD's record retention policies at 24 CFR Part 908 and 24 CFR Part 982 provide that the PHA may destroy your records three years from the date your participation in the program ends. To ensure the availability of your records, disputes of the original debt or termination information must be made within three years from the end of participation date; otherwise the debt and termination information will be presumed correct. Only the PHA who reported the adverse information about you can delete or correct your record. Your filing of bankruptcy will not result in the removal of debt owed or termination information from HUD's EIV system. However, if you have included this debt in your bankruptcy filing and/or this debt has been discharged by the bankruptcy court, your record will be updated to include the bankruptcy indicator, when you provide the PHA with documentation of your bankruptcy status.

The PHA will notify you in writing of its action regarding your dispute within 30 days of receiving your written dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is correct, the PHA will provide an explanation as to why the information is correct.
